Why is a Violet Alchemy® Purification Session Essential for you, a loved one, or your home and Business

Purification is the extraction or removal of discordant, disharmony or destructive energies known as attachments. Through transmutation or the dismantling of energies that bind, contract, dampen or lower the Human Energy Field or the Soul, having a great influence or effect upon you physically, emotionally, mentally, spiritually and even financially. Purification is a cleansing of the energetic Matrix of your Soul which is essential in order for your Vibration of light, love and power to be accessed and for it to expand. The energies that are being cleansed hold, by its very nature, a misaligned disturbing energy which polarizes against Ones' ability to walk in flow, lightness, empowerment and strength. It derails your being by counteracting the fluidity of life and the experience of grace and fulfillment.

The 6 reasons why a Purification session is Essential !

1. serious or chronic illness, 2. accident or trauma, 3. addictions of any kind, 4. unmotivated, procrastination or paralyzation due to anxiety or depression 5. Bad luck, or feel cursed, nightmares 6. unexplained negative experiences that are creating you to feel afraid or attacked.

Where is purification applicable ? Dysfunctional relationships are part of your everyday life. You work in a toxic environment / hospitals, correction facilities, schools, factories, corporations etc.

Purification is important for :

schoolrooms, dormitories, rehab facilities, your apartment, your home, your new home that you are renting or buying, your business, your land, your church, your local gathering space, your hospital room etc.

All of these places can hold unresolved energies from years of use. Think of the mental & emotional distress/ duress of anyone who may have been using or inhabiting the space prior to you and all that stress you and your family may have been through which build in your spaces.

What are the results of having a Violet Alchemy® Purification with Ama'zjhi ?

The experience is so immediate and you feel vastly different, like a weight has been lifted, more clarity and immediate sense of relief and a feeling of peace.

The removal of these energies is essential for anyone who is mentally & emotionally unstable. These kinds of attachments range in disturbance from mild to severe in their affects upon your life. These energies exacerbate all of your weaknesses, leading One to believe they are to blame, they are at fault, they are failing, or they are being attacked, cursed, controlled by an outside unseen force.

It is our recommendation that giving yourself or another the gift of a personal Purification session or one to purify and cleanse and bless your home space and or work space directly effects the people in the environment for the better increasing motivation, productivity, flow, grace and ease!
